So the second part of the amendment was not agreed to.

Pursuant to House Resolution 453, the previous question was ordered on the joint resolution, as amended.

The joint resolution, as amended, was ordered to be engrossed and read a third time, was read a third time by title.

Mr. SCOTT moved to recommit the bill to the Committee on the Judiciary with instructions to report the bill back to the House forthwith with the following amendment:

Strike all after the resolving clause and insert in lieu thereof the following:

That the following article is proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the United States, which shall be valid to all intents and purposes as part of the Constitution when ratified by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several States within seven years after the date of its submission for ratification:

“ARTICLE —

“Congress shall make no laws respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof.”.

After debate,

By unanimous consent, the previous question was ordered on the motion to recommit with instructions.

The question being put, viva voce,

Will the House recommit said joint resolution with instructions?

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. WICKER, announced that the nays had it.

Mr. SCOTT demanded a recorded vote on agreeing to said motion, which demand was supported by one-fifth of a quorum, so a recorded vote was ordered.

The vote was taken by electronic device.

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. WICKER, announced that two-thirds of the Members present had not voted in the affirmative.

So, less than two-thirds of the Members present having voted in favor thereof, said joint resolution was not passed.

A motion to reconsider the vote whereby said joint resolution was not passed was, by unanimous consent, laid on the table.

§52.12 PROVIDING FOR THE
CONSIDERATION OF H. CON. RES. 285

Mr. DIAZ-BALART, by direction of the Committee on Rules, called up the following resolution (H. Res. 454):

Resolved, That upon the adoption of this resolution it shall be in order to consider in the House the resolution (H. Con. Res. 285) expressing the sense of the Congress that the President of the United States should reconsider his decision to be formally received in Tiananmen Square by the Government of the People's Republic of China. The resolution shall be considered as read for amendment. The previous question shall be considered as ordered on the resolution to final adoption without intervening motion except: (1) one hour of debate on the resolution equally divided and controlled by the Majority Leader or his designee and a Member opposed to the resolution; and (2) one motion to recommit.

When said resolution was considered.

After debate,

On motion of Mr. DIAZ-BALART, the previous question was ordered on the resolution to its adoption or rejection and under the operation thereof, the resolution was agreed to.

A motion to reconsider the vote whereby said resolution was agreed to was, by unanimous consent, laid on the table.

§52.13 PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES RECONSIDER DECISION TO VISIT TIANANMEN SQUARE

Mr. GILMAN, pursuant to House Resolution 454, called up the following concurrent resolution (H. Con. Res. 285):

Whereas 9 years ago on June 4, 1989, thousands of Chinese students peacefully gathered in Tiananmen Square to demonstrate their support for freedom and democracy;

Whereas it was with horror that the world witnessed the response of the Government of the People's Republic of China as tanks and military units marched into Tiananmen Square;

Whereas Chinese soldiers of the People's Republic of China were ordered to fire machine guns and tanks on young, unarmed civilians;

Whereas "children were killed holding hands with their mothers", according to a reliable eyewitness account;

Whereas according to the same eyewitness account, "students were crushed by armored personnel carriers";

Whereas more than 2,000 Chinese pro-democracy demonstrators died that day, according to the Chinese Red Cross;

Whereas hundreds continue to languish in prisons because of their belief in freedom and democracy;

Whereas 9 years after the massacre on June 4, 1989, the Government of the People's Republic of China has yet to acknowledge the Tiananmen Square massacre; and

Whereas, being formally received in Tiananmen Square, the President would bestow legitimacy on the Chinese Government's horrendous actions of 9 years ago; Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate concurring), That it is the sense of the Congress that the President should reconsider his decision to be formally received in Tiananmen Square until the Government of the People's Republic of China acknowledges the Tiananmen Square massacre, pledges that such atrocities will never happen again, and releases those Chinese students still imprisoned for supporting freedom and democracy that day.

When said concurrent resolution was considered.

After debate,

Pursuant to House Resolution 454, the previous question was ordered on the concurrent resolution to its adoption or rejection.

The question being put, viva voce,

Will the House agree to said concurrent resolution?

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. GOODLATTE, announced that the yeas had it.

Mr. GILMAN objected to the vote on the ground that a quorum was not present and not voting.
